CONSTITUTION

OF THE

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA.

Preamble.

We, the people of the State of South Carolina, in Convention assembled, grateful to God for our liberties, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the preservation and perpetuation of the same.

ARTICLE I.

DECLARATION OF RIGHTS.

SECTION 1. All political power is vested in and derived from the people only, therefore they have the right at all times to modify their form of government.

Political power in people.

SECTION 2. Representation in the House of Representatives shall be apportioned according to population.

Apportionment Representatives.

SECTION 3. The General Assembly ought frequently to assemble for the redress of grievances and for making new laws, as the common good may require.

Meeting General Assembly

SECTION 4. The General Assembly shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof, or abridging the freedom of speech or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble and to petition the Government or any department thereof for a redress of grievances.

Religious worship.

Freedom of speech.

Petition.

SECTION 5. The privileges and immunities of citizens of this State and of the United States under this Constitution shall not be abridged, nor shall any person be deprived of life, liberty or property without due process of law, nor shall any person be denied the equal protection of the laws.

Privileges and immuni-ties.

Protection of laws.

SECTION 6. All property subject to taxation shall be taxed in proportion to its value.

Taxation.

SECTION 7. No tax, subsidy, charge, impost tax or duties shall be established, fixed, laid or levied, under any pretext whatsoever, without the consent of the people or their representatives lawfully assembled.

No tax without consent.

SECTION 8. No bill of attainder, ex post facto law, law impairing the obligation of contracts, nor law granting any title of nobility or hereditary emolument, shall be passed, and no conviction shall work corruption of blood or forfeiture of estate.

Attainder—
ex post facto
law.

SECTION 9. The right of suffrage, as regulated in this Constitution, shall be protected by law regulating elections and prohibiting, under adequate penalties, all undue influences from power, bribery, tumult or improper conduct.

Suffrage.

SECTION 10. All elections shall be free and open, and every inhabitant of this State possessing the qualifications provided for in this Constitution shall have an equal right to elect officers and be elected to fill public office.

Elections
free and open.

SECTION 11. No property qualification, unless prescribed in this Constitution, shall be necessary for an election to or the holding of any office. No person shall be elected or appointed to office in this State for life or during good behavior, but the terms of all officers shall be for some specified period, except Notaries Public and officers in the militia. After the adoption of this Constitution any person who shall fight a duel or send or accept a challence for that purpose, or be an aider or abettor in fighting a duel, shall be deprived of holding any office of honor or trust in this State, and shall be otherwise punished as the law shall prescribe.

- Residence. SECTION 12. Temporary absence from the State shall not forfeit a residence once obtained.
- Suspension of laws. SECTION 13. The power of suspending the laws or the execution of the laws shall only be exercised by the General Assembly or by its authority in particular cases expressly provided for by it.
- Departments separate. SECTION 14. In the government of this State the legislative, executive and judicial powers of the Government shall be forever separate and distinct from each other, and no person or persons exercising the functions of one of said departments shall assume or discharge the duties of any other.
- Courts—remedy. SECTION 15. All Courts shall be public, and every person shall have speedy remedy therein for wrongs sustained.
- Searches, seizures. SECTION 16. The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures shall not be violated, and no warrants shall issue but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched and the person or thing to be seized.
- Presentment of grand jury. SECTION 17. No person shall be held to answer for any crime where the punishment exceeds a fine of one hundred dollars or imprisonment for thirty days, with or without hard labor, unless on a presentment or indictment of a grand jury of the County where the crime shall have been committed, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces or in the militia when in actual service in time of war or public danger; nor shall any person be subject for the same offence to be twice put in jeopardy of life or liberty, nor shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself. Private property shall not be taken for private use without the consent of the owner, nor for public use without just compensation being first made therefor.
- Not tried twice. SECTION 18. In all criminal prosecutions the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury; and to be fully informed of the nature and cause of the accusation; to be confronted with the witnesses against him; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, and to be fully heard in his defence by himself or by his counsel or by both.
- Private property. SECTION 19. Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel and unusual punishments inflicted, nor shall witnesses be unreasonably detained. Corporal punishment shall not be inflicted. The power to punish for contempt shall not in any case extend to imprisonment in the State penitentiary.
- Trial by jury. SECTION 20. All persons shall, before conviction, be bailable by sufficient sureties, except for capital offences when the proof is evident or the presumption great.
- Witnesses. SECTION 21. In all indictments or prosecutions for libel, the - Excessive bail. SECTION 22. In all indictments or prosecutions for libel, the
- Corporal punishment. SECTION 23. In all indictments or prosecutions for libel, the
- Contempt. SECTION 24. In all indictments or prosecutions for libel, the
- Sureties. SECTION 25. In all indictments or prosecutions for libel, the
- Libel. SECTION 26. In all indictments or prosecutions for libel, the truth of the alleged libel may be given in evidence, and the jury shall be the judges of the law and the facts.

SECTION 22. Treason against the State shall consist alone in levying war or in giving aid and comfort to enemies against the State. No person shall be held guilty of treason, except upon testimony of at least two witnesses to the same overt act, or upon confession in open Court. Treason.

SECTION 23. The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended unless when, in case of insurrection, rebellion or invasion, the public safety may require it. Habeas corpus.

SECTION 24. No person shall be imprisoned for debt except in cases of fraud. Imprisonment for debt.

SECTION 25. The right of trial by jury shall be preserved inviolate. Trial by jury.

SECTION 26. A well regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed. As in times of peace armies are dangerous to liberty, they shall not be maintained without the consent of the General Assembly. The military power of the State shall always be held in subordination to the civil authority and be governed by it. No soldier shall in time of peace be quartered in any house without the consent of the owner, nor in time of war but in the manner to be prescribed by law. Keep and bear arms.

General Assembly may maintain armies.

Soldier, how quartered.

SECTION 27. No person shall in any case be subject to Martial law or to any pains or penalties by virtue of that law, except those employed in the army and navy of the United States, and except the militia in actual service, but by the authority of the General Assembly. Martial law.

SECTION 28. All navigable waters shall forever remain public highways free to the citizens of the State and the United States without tax, impost or toll imposed; and no tax, toll, impost or wharfage shall be imposed, demanded or received from the owners of any merchandise or commodity for the use of the shores or any wharf erected on the shores or in or over the waters of any navigable stream unless the same be authorized by the General Assembly. Navigable waters free.

No tax for use of wharf.

SECTION 29. The provisions of the Constitution shall be taken, deemed and construed to be mandatory and prohibitory, and not merely directory, except where expressly made directory or permissory by its own terms. Provisions of Constitution.

ARTICLE II.

RIGHT OF SUFFRAGE.

SECTION 1. All elections by the people shall be by ballot, and elections shall never be held or the ballots counted in secret. Elections by ballot.

Qualification
for office.

SECTION 2. Every qualified elector shall be eligible to any office to be voted for, unless disqualified by age, as prescribed in this Constitution. But no person shall hold two offices of honor or profit at the same time: Provided, That any person holding another office may at the same time be an officer in the militia or a Notary Public.

Two offices.

Electors.

SECTION 3. Every male citizen of this State and of the United States twenty-one years of age and upwards, not laboring under the disabilities named in this Constitution and possessing the qualifications required by it, shall be an elector.

SECTION 4. The qualifications for suffrage shall be as follows:

Residence.

(a) Residence in the State for two years, in the County one year, in the polling precinct in which the elector offers to vote four months, and the payment six months before any election of any poll tax then due and payable: Provided, That ministers in charge of an organized church and teachers of public schools shall be entitled to vote after six months' residence in the State, otherwise qualified.

Registration.

(b) Registration, which shall provide for the enrollment of every elector once in ten years, and also an enrollment during each and every year of every elector not previously registered under the provisions of this Article.

Qualification
for registration
up to January,
1898.

(c) Up to January 1st, 1898, all male persons of voting age applying for registration who can read any Section in this Constitution submitted to them by the registration officer, or understand and explain it when read to them by the registration officer, shall be entitled to register and become electors. A separate record of all persons registered before January 1st, 1898, sworn to by the registration officer, shall be filed, one copy with the Clerk of Court and one in the office of the Secretary of State, on or before February 1st, 1898, and such persons shall remain during life qualified electors unless disqualified by the other provisions of this Article. The certificate of the Clerk of Court or Secretary of State shall be sufficient evidence to establish the right of said citizens to any subsequent registration and the franchise under the limitations herein imposed.

List of registered voters.

Qualification
for registration
after January, 1898.

(d) Any person who shall apply for registration after January 1st, 1898, if otherwise qualified, shall be registered: Provided, That he can both read and write any Section of this Constitution submitted to him by the registration officer or can show that he owns, and has paid all taxes collectible during the previous year on property in this State assessed at three hundred dollars ($300) or more.

Payment of taxes necessary for voting

(e) Managers of election shall require of every elector offering to vote at any election, before allowing him to vote, proof of the payment of all taxes, including poll tax, assessed against him and collectible during the previous year. The production of a certificate or of the receipt of the officer authorized to collect such taxes shall be conclusive proof of the payment thereof.

(f) The General Assembly shall provide for issuing to each duly registered elector a certificate of registration, and shall provide for the renewal of such certificate when lost, mutilated or destroyed, if the applicant is still a qualified elector under the provisions of this Constitution, or if he has been registered as provided in subsection (e).

Certificate of registration.

SECTION 5. Any person denied registration shall have the right to appeal to the Court of Common Pleas, or any Judge thereof, and thence to the Supreme Court, to determine his right to vote under the limitations imposed in this Article, and on such appeal the hearing shall be de novo, and the General Assembly shall provide by law for such appeal, and for the correction of illegal and fraudulent registration, voting, and all other crimes against the election laws.

Appeal.

Crimes against election laws.

SECTION 6. The following persons are disqualified from being registered or voting:

— First, Persons convicted of burglary, arson, obtaining goods or money under false pretenses, perjury, forgery, robbery, bribery, adultery, bigamy, wife-beating, house-breaking, receiving stolen goods, breach of trust with fraudulent intent, fornication, sodomy, incest, assault with intent to ravish, miscegenation, larceny, or crimes against the election laws: Provided, That the pardon of the Governor shall remove such disqualification.

Persons disqualified from voting.

— Second, Persons who are idiots, insane, paupers supported at the public expense, and persons confined in any public prison.

SECTION 7. For the purpose of voting, no person shall be deemed to have gained or lost a residence by reason of his presence or absence while employed in the service of the United States, nor while engaged in the navigation of the waters of this State, or of the United States, or of the high seas, nor while a student of any institution of learning.

Residence gained or lost.

SECTION 8. The General Assembly shall provide by law for the registration of all qualified electors, and shall prescribe the manner of holding elections and of ascertaining the results of the same: Provided, At the first registration under this Constitution, and until the first of January, 1898, the registration shall be conducted by a Board of three discreet persons in each County, to be appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. For the first registration to be provided for under this Constitution, the registration books shall be kept open for at least six consecutive weeks; and thereafter from time to time at least one week in each month, up to thirty days next preceding the first election to be held under this Constitution. The registration books shall be public records open to the inspection of any citizen at all times.

Registration provided.

Elections.

Board of registration.

Books of registration.

- Polling precincts. SECTION 9. The General Assembly shall provide for the establishment of polling precincts in the several Counties of the State, and those now existing shall so continue until abolished or changed. Each elector shall be required to vote at his own precinct, but provision shall be made for his transfer to another precinct upon his change of residence.
- Primary elections. SECTION 10. The General Assembly shall provide by law for the regulation of party primary elections and punishing fraud at the same.
- Closing books of registration. SECTION 11. The registration books shall close at least thirty days before an election, during which time transfers and registration shall not be legal: Provided, Persons who will become of age during that period shall be entitled to registration before the books are closed.
- Municipal elections. SECTION 12. Electors in municipal elections shall possess the qualifications and be subject to the disqualifications herein prescribed. The production of a certificate of registration from the registration officers of the County as an elector at a precinct included in the incorporated city or town in which the voter desires to vote is declared a condition prerequisite to his obtaining a certificate of registration for municipal elections, and in addition he must have been a resident within the corporate limits at least four months before the election and have paid all taxes due and collectible for the preceding fiscal year. The General Assembly shall provide for the registration of all voters before each election in municipalities: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall apply to any municipal elections which may be held prior to the general election of the year 1896.
- Registration in. SECTION 13. In authorizing a special election in any incorporated city or town in this State for the purpose of bonding the same, the General Assembly shall prescribe as a condition precedent to the holding of said election a petition from a majority of the freholders of said city or town as shown by its tax books, and at such elections all electors of such city or town who are duly qualified for voting under Section 12 of this Article, and who have paid all taxes, State, County and municipal, for the previous year, shall be allowed to vote; and the vote of a majority of those voting in said election shall be necessary to authorize the issue of said bonds.
- Bonded debt in municipalities. SECTION 14. Electors shall in all cases except treason, felony, or a breach of the peace, be privileged from arrest on the days of election during their attendance at the polls, and going to and returning therefrom.
- Arrests of electors. SECTION 15. No power, civil or military, shall at any time interfere to prevent the free exercise of the right of suffrage in this State.

ARTICLE III.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

SECTION 1. The legislative power of this State shall be vested in two distinct branches, the one to be styled the "Senate" and the other the "House of Representatives," and both together the "General Assembly of the State of South Carolina." Legislative power.

SECTION 2. The House of Representatives shall be composed of members chosen by ballot every second year by citizens of this State, qualified as in this Constitution is provided. House of Representatives.

SECTION 3. The House of Representatives shall consist of one hundred and twenty-four members, to be apportioned among the several Counties according to the number of inhabitants contained in each. Each County shall constitute one Election District. An enumeration of the inhabitants for this purpose shall be made in the year nineteen hundred and one, and shall be made in the course of every tenth year thereafter, in such manner as shall be by law directed: Provided, That the General Assembly may at any time, in its discretion, adopt the immediately preceding United States Census as a true and correct enumeration of the inhabitants of the several Counties, and make the apportionment of Representatives among the several Counties according to said enumeration: Provided, further, That until the apportionment which shall be made upon the next enumeration shall take effect, the representation of the several Counties as they now exist (including the County of Saluda established by ordinance) shall be as follows: Abbeville, 5; Aiken, 3; Anderson, 5; Barnwell, 5; Beaufort, 4; Berkeley, 4; Charleston, 9; Chester, 3; Chesterfield, 2; Clarendon, 3; Colleton, 4; Darlington, 3; Edgefield, 3; Fairfield, 3; Florence, 3; Georgetown, 2; Greenville, 5; Hampton, 2; Horry, 2; Kershaw, 2; Lancaster, 2; Laurens, 3; Lexington, 2; Marion, 3; Marlboro, 3; Newberry, 3; Oconee, 2; Orangeburg, 5; Pickens, 2; Richland, 4; Saluda, 2; Spartanburg, 6; Sumter, 5; Union, 3; Williamsburg, 3; York, 4: Provided, further, That in the event other Counties are hereafter established, then the General Assembly shall reapportion the Representatives between the Counties. Number of members.
Enumeration of inhabitants.
Apportionment.

SECTION 4. In assigning Representatives to the several Counties, the General Assembly shall allow one Representative to every one hundred and twenty-fourth part of the whole number of inhabitants in the State: Provided, That if in the apportionment of Representatives any County shall appear not to be entitled, from its population, to a Representative, such County shall, nevertheless, send one Representative; and if there be still a deficiency in the number of Representatives required by Section third of this Article, such deficiency shall be supplied by assign- Assignment of Representatives.

ing Representatives to those Counties having the largest surplus fractions.

Apportionment takes effect.

SECTION 5. No apportionment of Representatives shall take effect until the general election which shall succeed such apportionment.

Senate.

SECTION 6. The Senate shall be composed of one member from each County, to be elected for the term of four years by the qualified electors in each County, in the same manner in which members of the House of Representatives are chosen.

Qualification of Senators and members of House.

SECTION 7. No person shall be eligible to a seat in the Senate or House of Representatives who, at the time of his election, is not a duly qualified elector under this Constitution in the County in which he may be chosen. Senators shall be at least twenty-five and Representatives at least twenty-one years of age.

Election of Senators and Representatives.

SECTION 8. The first election for members of the House of Representatives under this Constitution shall be held on Tuesday after the first Monday in November, eighteen hundred and ninety-six, and in every second year thereafter, in such manner and at such places as the General Assembly may prescribe; and the first election for Senators shall be held on Tuesday after the first Monday in November, eighteen hundred and ninety-six, and every fourth year thereafter, except in Counties in which there was an election for Senator in eighteen hundred and ninety-four for a full term, in which Counties no election for Senator shall be held until the general election to be held in eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, and every fourth year thereafter, except to fill vacancies. Senators shall be so classified that one-half of their number, as nearly as practicable, shall be chosen every two years. Whenever the General Assembly shall establish more than one County at any session, it shall so prescribe the first term of the Senators from such Counties as to observe such classification.

Classification of Senators.

Sessions General Assembly.

SECTION 9. The annual session of the General Assembly heretofore elected, fixed by the Constitution of the year eighteen hundred and sixty-eight to convene on the fourth Tuesday of November, in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-five, is hereby postponed, and the same shall be convened and held in the city of Columbia on the second Tuesday of January, in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-six. The first session of the General Assembly elected under this Constitution shall convene in Columbia on the second Tuesday in January, in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, and thereafter annually at the same time and place. Should the casualties of war or contagious disease render it unsafe to meet at the seat of government, then the Governor may, by proclamation, appoint a more secure and convenient place of meeting. Members of the General Assembly shall not receive any compensation for more than forty days of any one session:

Compensation of members.

Provided, That this limitation shall not effect the first four sessions of the General Assembly under this Constitution.

SECTION 10. The terms of office of the Senators and Representatives chosen at a general election shall begin on the Mouday following such election. Terms of office.

SECTION 11. Each house shall judge of the election returns and qualifications of its own members, and a majority of each house shall constitute a quorum to do business; but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and may compel the attendance of absent members, in such manner and under such penalties as may be provided by law or rule. Election returns.
Quorum.
Absent members.

SECTION 12. Each house shall choose its own officers, determine its rules of procedure, punish its members for disorderly behavior, and, with the concurrence of two-thirds, expel a member, but not a second time for the same cause. Officers.
Rules.
Expulsion.

SECTION 13. Each house may punish by imprisonment during its sitting any person not a member who shall be guilty of disrespect to the house by any disorderly or contemptuous behavior in its presence, or who, during the time of its sitting, shall threaten harm to the body or estate of any member for anything said or done in either house, or who shall assault any of them therefor, or who shall assault or arrest any witness or other person ordered to attend the house in his going thereto or returning therefrom, or who shall rescue any person arrested by order of the house: Provided, That such time of imprisonment shall not in any case extend beyond the session of the General Assembly. Right of punishment.

SECTION 14. The members of both houses shall be protected in their persons and estates during their attendance on, going to and returning from the General Assembly, and ten days previous to the sitting and ten days after the adjournment thereof. But these privileges shall not protect any member who shall be charged with treason, felony or breach of the peace. Members protected.

SECTION 15. Bills for raising revenue shall originate in the House of Representatives, but may be altered, amended or rejected by the Senate; all other Bills may originate in either house, and may be amended, altered or rejected by the other. Bills for revenue.
Other Bills.

SECTION 16. The style of all laws shall be: "Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of South Carolina." Style of laws.

SECTION 17. Every Act or resolution having the force of law shall relate to but one subject, and that shall be expressed in the title. One subject.

SECTION 18. No Bill or Joint Resolution shall have the force of law until it shall have been read three times and on three several days in each house, has had the Great Seal of the State affixed to it, and has been signed by the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives: Provided, That either branch of the General Assembly may provide by rule for a first Formalities of Act.

and third reading of any Bill or Joint Resolution by its title only.

Mileage. SECTION 19. Each member of the General Assembly shall receive five cents for every mile for ordinary route of travel in going to and returning from the place where its sessions are held ; no General Assembly shall have the power to increase the per diem of its own members ; and members of the General Assembly when convened in extra session shall receive the same compensation as is fixed by law for the regular session.

Increase of per diem.

Extra session.

Elections "viva voce." SECTION 20. In all elections by the General Assembly, or either house thereof, the members shall vote "viva voce," and their votes, thus given, shall be entered upon the journal of the house to which they respectively belong.

Adjournments SECTION 21. Neither house, during the session of the General Assembly, shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn for more than three days, nor to any other place than that in which it shall be at the time sitting.

Journal. SECTION 22. Each house shall keep a journal of its own proceedings, and cause the same to be published immediately after its adjournment, excepting such parts as, in its judgment, may require secrecy ; and the yeas and nays of the members of either house, on any question, shall, at the desire of ten members of the House or five members of the Senate, respectively, be entered on the journal. Any member of either house shall have liberty to dissent from and protest against any Act or resolution which he may think injurious to the public or to an individual, and have the reasons of his dissent entered on the journal.

"Yeas" and "nays."

Doors open. SECTION 23. The doors of each house shall be open, except on such occasions as in the opinion of the House may require secrecy.

Holding two offices. SECTION 24. No person shall be eligible to a seat in the General Assembly while he holds any office or position of profit or trust under this State, the United States of America, or any of them, or under any other power, except officers in the militia and Notaries Public ; and if any member shall accept or exercise any of the said disqualifying offices or positions he shall vacate his seat.

Vacancies. SECTION 25. If any election district shall neglect to choose a member or members on the day of election, or if any person chosen a member of either house shall refuse to qualify and take his seat, or shall resign, die, depart the State, accept any disqualifying office or position, or become otherwise disqualified to hold his seat, a writ of election shall be issued by the President of the Senate or Speaker of the House of Representatives, as the case may be, for the purpose of filling the vacancy thereby occasioned for the remainder of the term for which the person so refusing to qualify, resigning, dying, departing the State, or becoming disqualified, was elected to serve, or the defaulting election district ought to have chosen a member or members.

SECTION 26. Members of the General Assembly, and all officers before they enter upon the duties of their respective offices, and all members of the bar, before they enter upon the practice of their profession, shall take and subscribe the following oath: "I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I am duly qualified, according to the Constitution of this State, to exercise the duties of the office to which I have been elected, (or appointed,) and that I will, to the best of my ability, discharge the duties thereof, and preserve, protect, and defend the Constitution of this State and of the United States. I do further solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have not since the first day of January, in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-one, engaged in a duel as principal or second or otherwise; and that I will not, during the term of office to which I have been elected (or appointed) engage in a duel as principal or second or otherwise. So help me God."

Oath of office.

SECTION 27. Officers shall be removed for incapacity, misconduct or neglect of duty, in such manner as may be provided by law, when no mode of trial or removal is provided in this Constitution.

Removal of officer.

SECTION 28. The General Assembly shall enact such laws as will exempt from attachment, levy and sale under any mesne or final process issued from any Court, to the head of any family residing in this State, a homestead in lands, whether held in fee or any lesser estate, to the value of one thousand dollars, or so much thereof as the property is worth if its value is less than one thousand dollars, with the yearly products thereof, and to every head of a family residing in this State, whether entitled to a homestead exemption in lands or not, personal property to the value of five hundred dollars, or so much thereof as the property is worth if its value is less than five hundred dollars. The title to the homestead to be set off and assigned shall be absolute and be forever discharged from all debts of the said debtor then existing or thereafter contracted except as hereinafter provided: Provided, That in case any woman having a separate estate shall be married to the head of a family who has not of his own sufficient property to constitute a homestead as hereinbefore provided, said married woman shall be entitled to a like exemption as provided for the head of a family: Provided, further, That there shall not be an allowance of more than one thousand dollars' worth of real estate and more than five hundred dollars' worth of personal property to the husband and wife jointly: Provided, further, That no property shall be exempt from attachment, levy or sale for taxes, or for payment of obligations contracted for the purchase of said homestead or personal property exemption or the erection or making of improvements or repairs thereon: Provided, further, That the yearly products of said homestead shall

- not be exempt from attachment, levy or sale for the payment of obligations contracted in the production of the same: Provided, further, That no waiver shall defeat the right of homestead before assignment except it be by deed of conveyance, or by mortgage, and only as against the mortgage debt; and no judgment creditor or other creditor whose lien does not bind the homestead shall have any right or equity to require that a lien which embraces the homestead and other property shall first exhaust the homestead: Provided, further, That after a homestead in lands has been set off and recorded the same shall not be waived by deed of conveyance, mortgage or otherwise, unless the same be executed by both husband and wife, if both be living: Provided, further, That any person not the head of a family shall be entitled to a like exemption as provided for the head of a family in all necessary wearing apparel and tools and implements of trade, not to exceed in value the sum of three hundred dollars.
- Waiver. SECTION 29. All taxes upon property, real and personal, shall be laid upon the actual value of the property taxed, as the same shall be ascertained by an assessment made for the purpose of laying such tax.
- Deed of husband and wife. SECTION 30. The General Assembly shall never grant extra compensation, fee or allowance to any public officer, agent, servant or contractor after service rendered, or contract made, nor authorize payment or part payment of any claim under any contract not authorized by law; but appropriations may be made for expenditures in repelling invasion, preventing or suppressing insurrection.
- Exemption for single person. SECTION 31. Lands belonging to or under the control of the State shall never be donated, directly or indirectly, to private corporations or individuals, or to railroad companies. Nor shall such land be sold to corporations or associations, for a less price than that for which it can be sold to individuals. This, however, shall not prevent the General Assembly from granting a right of way, not exceeding one hundred and fifty feet in width, as a mere easement to railroads across State lands, nor to interfere with the discretion of the General Assembly in confirming the title to lands claimed to belong to the State, but used or possessed by other parties under an adverse claim.
- Taxes laid upon actual value. SECTION 32. The General Assembly shall not authorize payment to any person of the salary of a deceased officer beyond the date of his death; nor grant pensions except for military and navy service; nor retire any officer on pay or part pay.
- Extra compensation not permitted. SECTION 33. The marriage of a white person with a negro or mulatto, or person who shall have one-eighth or more negro blood, shall be unlawful and void. No unmarried woman shall legally consent to sexual intercourse who shall not have attained the age of fourteen years.
- Appropriations for repelling invasion.
- Public lands.
- Salary of deceased officer.
- Marriage of whites and negroes.
- Sexual intercourse.

SECTION 34. The General Assembly of this State shall not enact local or special laws concerning any of the following subjects or for any of the following purposes, to wit: Special laws prohibited.

I. To change the names of persons or places.

II. To lay out, open, alter or work roads or highways.

III. To incorporate cities, towns or villages, or change, amend or extend the charter thereof.

IV. To incorporate educational, religious, charitable, social, manufacturing or banking institutions not under control of the State, or amend or extend the charters thereof.

V. To incorporate school districts.

VI. To authorize the adoption or legitimation of children.

VII. To provide for the protection of game.

VIII. To summon and empanel grand or petit jurors.

IX. To provide for the age at which citizens shall be subject to road or other public duty.

X. To fix the amount or manner of compensation to be paid to any County officer except that the laws may be so made as to grade the compensation in proportion to the population and necessary service required.

XI. In all other cases, where a general law can be made applicable, no special law shall be enacted.

XII. The General Assembly shall forthwith enact general laws concerning said subjects for said purposes, which shall be uniform in their operations: Provided, That nothing contained in this Section shall prohibit the General Assembly from enacting special provisions in general laws.

XIII. The provisions of this Section shall not apply to charitable and educational corporations where, under the terms of a gift, devise, or will, special incorporation may be required.

SECTION 35. It shall be the duty of the General Assembly to enact laws limiting the number of acres of land which any alien or any corporation controlled by aliens may own within this State. Lands owned by aliens.

ARTICLE IV.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

SECTION 1. The supreme executive authority of this State shall be vested in a Chief Magistrate, who shall be styled "The Governor of the State of South Carolina." Chief Magistrate.

SECTION 2. The Governor shall be elected by the electors duly qualified to vote for members of the House of Representatives, and shall hold his office for two years, and until his successor shall be chosen and qualified, and shall be re-eligible. He shall Governor.

be elected at the first general election held under this Constitution for members of the General Assembly, and at each general election thereafter, and shall be installed during the first session of the said General Assembly after his election, on such day as shall be provided by law. The other State officers-elect shall at the same time enter upon the performance of their duties.

State officers.

Qualifications of Governor.

SECTION 3. No person shall be eligible to the office of Governor who denies the existence of the Supreme Being; or who at the time of such election has not attained the age of thirty years; and who shall not have been a citizen of the United States and a citizen and resident of this State for five years next preceding the day of election. No person while governor shall hold any office or other commission (except in the militia) under the authority of this State, or of any other power, at one and the same time.

Boards of Canvassers transmit returns of election for Governor.

SECTION 4. The returns of every election for Governor shall be sealed up by the Boards of Canvassers in the respective Counties, and transmitted, by mail, to the seat of Government, directed to the Secretary of State, who shall deliver them to the Speaker of the House of Representatives at the next ensuing session of the General Assembly; and duplicates of said returns shall be filed with the Clerks of the Courts of said Counties. It shall be the duty of any Clerk of Court to forward to the Secretary of State a certified copy of said returns upon being notified that the returns previously forwarded by mail have not been received at his office. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of State, after the expiration of seven days from the day upon which the votes have been canvassed by the County Board, if the returns thereof from any County have not been received, to notify the Clerk of the Court of said County, and order a copy of the returns filed in his office to be forwarded forthwith. The Secretary of State shall deliver the returns to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, at the next ensuing session of the General Assembly; and during the first week of the session, or as soon as the General Assembly shall have organized by the election of the presiding officers of the two houses, the Speaker shall open and publish them in the presence of both houses. The person having the highest number of votes shall be Governor; but if two or more shall be equal, and highest in votes, the General Assembly shall during the same session, in the House of Representatives, choose one of them Governor viva voce. Contested elections for Governor shall be determined by the General Assembly in such manner as shall be prescribed by law.

Returns delivered to Speaker of House of Representatives.

SECTION 5. A Lieutenant Governor shall be chosen at the same time, in the same manner, continue in office for the same period and be possessed of the same qualifications as the Governor, and shall ex officio, be President of the Senate.

Vote of Lieutenant Governor.

SECTION 6. The Lieutenant Governor while presiding in the Senate shall have no vote, unless the Senate be equally divided,

SECTION 7. The Senate shall, as soon as practicable after the convening of the General Assembly, choose a President pro tempore to act in the absence of the Lieutenant Governor, or when he shall fill the office of Governor.

President pro tempore of Senate.

SECTION 8. A member of the Senate acting as Governor or Lieutenant Governor shall thereupon vacate his seat and another person shall be elected in his stead.

Member of Senate acting as Governor.

SECTION 9. In case of the removal of the Governor from office by impeachment, death, resignation, disqualification, disability, or removal from the State, the Lieutenant Governor shall then be Governor; and in case of the removal of the last named officer from his office by impeachment, death, resignation, disqualification, disability, or removal from the State, the President pro tempore of the Senate shall be Governor; and the last named officer shall then forthwith, by proclamation, convene the Senate in order that a President pro tempore may be chosen. In case the Governor be impeached, the Lieutenant Governor shall act in his stead and have his powers until judgment in the case shall have been pronounced. In case of the temporary disability of the Governor the Lieutenant Governor shall perform the duties of the Governor.

Vacancy in office of Governor or Lieutenant Governor, how filled.

SECTION 10. The Governor shall be Commander-in-Chief of the militia of the State, except when they shall be called into the active service of the United States.

Commander-in-Chief.

SECTION 11. He shall have power to grant reprieves, commutations and pardons after conviction (except in cases of impeachment), in such manner, on such terms and under such restrictions as he shall think proper; and he shall have power to remit fines and forfeitures, unless otherwise directed by law. It shall be his duty to report to the General Assembly, at the next regular session thereafter, all pardons granted by him, with the report of the Board of Pardons. Every petition for pardon or commutation of sentence may be first referred by him to a Board of Pardons, to be provided by the General Assembly, which Board shall hear all such petitions under such rules and regulations as the General Assembly may provide. The Governor may adopt the recommendations of said Board, but in case he does not he shall submit his reasons to the General Assembly.

Pardons.

Board of Pardons.

SECTION 12. He shall take care that the laws be faithfully executed in mercy.

Laws executed.

SECTION 13. The Governor and Lieutenant Governor shall, at stated times, receive for their services compensation, which shall be neither increased nor diminished during the period for which they shall have been elected.

SECTION 14. All officers in the Executive Department, and all Boards of public institutions, shall, when required by the Governor, give him information in writing upon any subject relating to the duties of their respective offices or the concerns of their respective institutions, including itemized accounts of receipts and disbursements.

Information to Legislature. SECTION 15. The Governor shall, from time to time, give to the General Assembly information of the condition of the State, and recommend for its consideration such measures as he shall deem necessary or expedient.

Extra sessions. SECTION 16. He may on extraordinary occasions convene the General Assembly in extra session. Should either house remain without a quorum for five days, or in case of disagreement between the two houses during any session with respect to the time of adjournment, he may adjourn them to such time as he shall think proper, not beyond the time of the annual session then next ensuing.

Governor may adjourn General Assembly. SECTION 17. He shall commission all officers of the State.

Commissions. SECTION 18. The Seal of the State now in use shall be used by the Governor officially, and shall be called "The Great Seal of the State of South Carolina."

Seal of State. SECTION 19. All grants and commissions shall be issued in the name and by the authority of the State of South Carolina, sealed with the Great Seal, signed by the Governor, and countersigned by the Secretary of State.

Grants and commissions. SECTION 20. The Governor and Lieutenant Governor, before entering upon the duties of their respective offices, shall take and subscribe the oath of office as prescribed in Article III, Section 26, of the Constitution.

Oath of Governor and Lieutenant Governor. SECTION 21. The Governor shall reside at the Capital of the State, except in cases of contagion or the emergencies of war; but during the sittings of the General Assembly he shall reside where its sessions are held.

Residence of Governor. SECTION 22. Whenever it shall be brought to the notice of the Governor by affidavit that any officer who has the custody of public or trust funds is probably guilty of embezzlement or the appropriation of public or trust funds to private use, then the Governor shall direct his immediate prosecution by the proper officer, and upon true bill found the Governor shall suspend such officer and appoint one in his stead, until he shall have been acquitted by the verdict of a jury. In case of conviction the office shall be declared vacant and the vacancy filled as may be provided by law.

Suspension of officers. SECTION 23. Every Bill or Joint Resolution which shall have passed the General Assembly, except on a question of adjournment, shall, before it becomes a law, be presented to the Governor, and if he approve he shall sign it; if not, he shall return it, with his objections, to the house in which it originated, which shall enter the objection at large on its Journal and proceed to reconsider it. If after such reconsideration two-thirds of that house shall agree to pass it, it shall be sent, together with the objections, to the other house, by which it shall be reconsidered, and if approved by two-thirds of that house it shall have the same effect as if it had been signed by the Governor; but in all such cases the vote of both houses shall be taken by yeas and nays, and the names of the persons voting for and against the Bill or Joint Resolution shall be entered on the Journals of both houses respectively. Bills appropriating money out of the Treasury shall specify the objects and purposes for which the same are made, and appropriate to them respectively their several amounts in distinct items and Sections. If the Governor shall not approve any one or more of the items or Sections contained in any Bill, but shall approve of the residue thereof, it shall become a law as to the residue in like manner as if he had signed it. The Governor shall then return the Bill with his objections to the items or Sections of the same not approved by him to the house in which the Bill originated, which house shall enter the objections at large upon its Journal and proceed to reconsider so much of said Bill as is not approved by the Governor. The same proceedings shall be had in both houses in reconsidering the same as is provided in case of an entire Bill returned by the Governor with his objections; and if any item or Section of said Bill not approved by the Governor shall be passed by two-thirds of each house of the General Assembly, it shall become a part of said law notwithstanding the objections of the Governor. If a Bill or Joint Resolution shall not be returned by the Governor within three days after it shall have been presented to him, Sundays excepted, it shall have the same force and effect as if he had signed it, unless the General Assembly, by adjournment, prevent its return, in which case it shall have such force and effect unless returned within two days after the next meeting.

Bill or Joint Resolution must be signed or vetoed by the Governor.

SECTION 24. There shall be elected by the qualified voters of the State a Secretary of State, a Comptroller-General, an Attorney-General, a Treasurer, an Adjutant and Inspector-General, and a Superintendent of Education, who shall hold their respective offices for the term of two years, and until their several successors have been chosen and qualified; and whose duties and compensation shall be prescribed by law. The compensation of such officers shall be neither increased nor diminished during the period for which they shall have been elected.

Other State
officers.

ARTICLE V.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

SECTION 1. The judicial power of this State shall be vested in a Supreme Court, in two Circuit Courts, to wit: A Court of Common Pleas having civil jurisdiction and a Court of General Ses-

Judicial power vested in certain Courts.

sions with criminal jurisdiction only. The General Assembly may also establish County Courts, Municipal Courts and such Courts in any or all of the Counties of this State inferior to Circuit Courts as may be deemed necessary, but none of such Courts shall ever be invested with jurisdiction to try cases of murder, manslaughter, rape or attempt to rape, arson, common law burglary, bribery or perjury: Provided, Before a County Court shall be established in any County it must be submitted to the qualified electors and a majority of those voting must vote for its establishment.

Supreme Court.

SECTION 2. The Supreme Court shall consist of a Chief Justice and three Associate Justices, any three of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The Chief Justice shall preside, and in his absence the senior Associate Justice. They shall be elected by a joint viva voce vote of the General Assembly for the term of eight years, and shall continue in office until their successors shall be elected and qualified, and shall be so classified that one of them shall go out of office every two years.

Present Chief Justice and Associate Justice.

SECTION 3. The present Chief Justice and Associate Justices of the Supreme Court are declared to be the Chief Justice and two of the Associate Justices of said Court as herein established until the terms for which they were elected shall expire, and the General Assembly at its next session shall elect the third Associate Justice and make suitable provision for accomplishing the classification above directed.

Jurisdiction of Supreme Court.

SECTION 4. The Supreme Court shall have power to issue writs or orders of injunction, mandamus, quo warranto, prohibition, certiorari, habeas corpus and other original and remedial writs. And said Court shall have appellate jurisdiction only in cases of chancery, and in such appeals they shall review the findings of fact as well as the law, except in chancery cases where the facts are settled by a jury and the verdict not set aside, and shall constitute a Court for the correction of errors at law under such regulations as the General Assembly may by law prescribe.

Held twice a year at capital.

SECTION 5. The Supreme Court shall be held at least twice in each year at the seat of government and at such other place or places in the State as the General Assembly may direct.

Disqualification of Judges in certain cases.

SECTION 6. No Judge shall preside at the trial of any cause in the event of which he may be interested, or when either of the parties shall be connected with him by affinity or consanguinity, within such degrees as may be prescribed by law, or in which he may have been counsel or have presided in any inferior Court. In case all or any of the Justices of the Supreme Court shall be thus disqualified, or be otherwise prevented from presiding in any cause or causes, the Court or the Justices thereof shall certify the same to the Governor of the State, and he shall immediately commission, specially, the requisite number of men learned in the law for the trial and determination thereof. The same course shall be pursued in the Circuit and inferior Courts as is prescribed in this Section for cases of the Supreme Court. The General Assembly shall provide by law for the temporary appointment of men learned in the law to hold either special or regular terms of the Circuit Courts whenever there may be necessity for such appointment.

Vacancies, how filled.

Holding Circuit Courts.

SECTION 7. There shall be appointed by the Justices of the Supreme Court a Reporter and a Clerk of said Court, who shall hold their offices for four years, and whose duties and compensation shall be prescribed by law.

Reporter. Clerk.

SECTION 8. When a judgment or decree is reversed or affirmed by the Supreme Court, every point made and distinctly stated in the cause and fairly arising upon the record of the case shall be considered and decided, and the reason thereof shall be concisely and briefly stated in writing and preserved with the record of the case.

Judgment of Supreme Court.

SECTION 9. The Justice of the Supreme Court and Judges of the Circuit Court shall each receive compensation for their services to be fixed by law, which shall not be increased or diminished during their continuance in office. They shall not be allowed any fees or perquisites of office, nor shall they hold any other office of trust or profit under this State, the United States, or any other power.

Compensation of Judges and Justices.

SECTION 10. No person shall be eligible to the office of Chief Justice, Associate Justice or Judge of the Circuit Court who is not at the time of his election a citizen of the United States and of this State, and has not attained the age of twenty-six years, has not been a licensed attorney at law for at least five years, and been a resident of this State for five years next preceding his election.

Qualifications of.

SECTION 11. All vacancies in the Supreme Court or inferior tribunals shall be filled by elections as herein prescribed: Provided, That if the unexpired term does not exceed one year such vacancy may be filled by Executive appointment. All Judges, by virtue of their office, shall be conservators of the peace throughout the State; and when a vacancy is filled by either appointment or election, the incumbent shall hold only for the unexpired term of his predecessor.

Vacancies.

Conservators.

Unexpired term.

SECTION 12. In all cases decided by the Supreme Court the concurrence of three of the Justices shall be necessary for a reversal of the judgment below, but if the four Justices equally divide in opinion the judgment below shall be affirmed, subject to the provisions hereinafter prescribed. Whenever, upon the hearing of any cause or question before the Supreme Court, in the exercise of its original or appellate jurisdiction, it shall appear to the Justices thereof, or any two of them, that there is involved a question of constitutional law, or of conflict between the Constitution and laws of this State and of the United States, or between the duties and obligations of her citizens under the same, upon the determination of which the entire Court is not agreed; or whenever the Justices of said Court, or any two of them, desire it on any cause or question so before said Court, the Chief Justice, or in his absence the presiding Associate Justice, shall call to the assistance of the Supreme Court all of the Judges of the Circuit Court: Provided, however, That when the matter to be submitted is involved in an appeal from the Circuit Court, the Circuit Judge who tried the cause shall not sit. A majority of the Justices of the Supreme Court and Circuit Judges shall constitute a quorum. The decision of the Court so constituted, or a majority of the Justices and Judges sitting, shall be final and conclusive. In such case the Chief Justice, or in his absence the presiding Associate Justice, shall preside. Whenever the Justices of the Supreme Court and the Circuit Judges meet together for the purposes aforesaid, if the number thereof qualified to sit constitute an even number, then one of the Circuit Judges must retire; and the Circuit Judges present shall determine by lot which of their number shall retire.

Three necessary for reversal.

Judge shall not sit.

Number even, one must retire.

Judicial Circuits.

Election of Judges.

Present Judges.

Interchange of Circuits.

Jurisdiction of Courts of Common Pleas.

Sit twice.

Decisions, when filed.

SECTION 13. The State shall be divided into as many Judicial Circuits as the General Assembly may prescribe, and for each Circuit a Judge shall be elected by joint viva voce vote of the General Assembly, who shall hold his office for the term of four years; and at the time of his election he shall be an elector of a County of, and during his continuance in office he shall reside in, the Circuit of which he is Judge. The present Judges of the Circuit Courts shall continue in office until the expiration of the terms for which they were elected, and, should a new division of the Judicial Circuits be made, shall be the Judges of the respective Circuits in which they shall reside after said division.

SECTION 14. Judges of the Circuit Courts shall interchange Circuits with each other, and the General Assembly shall provide therefor.

SECTION 15. The Courts of Common Pleas shall have original jurisdiction, subject to appeal to the Supreme Court, to issue writs or orders of injunction, mandamus, habeas corpus, and such other writs as may be necessary to carry their powers into full effect. They shall have jurisdiction in all civil cases. They shall have appellate jurisdiction in all cases within the jurisdiction of inferior Courts, except from such inferior Courts from which the General Assembly shall provide an appeal directly to the Supreme Court.

SECTION 16. The Court of Common Pleas shall sit in each County in this State at least twice in every year at such stated times and places as may be appointed by law.

SECTION 17. It shall be the duty of the Justices of the Supreme Court to file their decisions within sixty days from the last day of the Court at which the cases were heard; and the duty of the Judges of the Circuit Courts to file their decisions within sixty days from the rising of the last Court of the Circuit then being held.

SECTION 18. The Court of General Sessions shall have jurisdiction in all criminal cases except those cases in which exclusive jurisdiction shall be given to inferior Courts, and in these it shall have appellate jurisdiction. It shall also have concurrent jurisdiction with, as well as appellate jurisdiction from, the inferior Courts in all cases of riot, assault and battery, and larceny. It shall sit in each County in the State at least twice in each year at such stated times and places as the Genral Assembly may direct.

Court of General Sessions.

SECTION 19. The Court of Probate shall remain as now established in the County of Charleston. In all other Counties of the State the jurisdiction in all matters testamentary and of administration, in business appertaining to minors and the allotment of dower, in cases of idiocy and lunacy, and persons non compos mentis, shall be vested as the General Assembly may provide, and until such provision such jurisdiction shall remain in the Court of Probate as now established.

Court of Probate.

SECTION 20. A sufficient number of Magistrates shall be appointed and commissioned by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, for each County, who shall hold their offices for the term of two years and until their successors are appointed and qualified. Each Magistrate shall have the power, under such regulations as may now or hereafter be provided by law, to appoint one or more Constables to execute writs and processes issued by him. The present Trial Justices are declared Magistrates as herein created, and shall exercise the powers and duties of said office of Magistrate until their successors shall be appointed and qualified. Each Magistrate shall receive a salary, to be fixed by the General Assembly, in lieu of all fees in criminal cases.

Magistrates.

SECTION 21. Magistrates shall have jurisdiction in such civil cases as the General Assembly may prescribe: Provided, Such jurisdiction shall not extend to cases where the value of property in controversy, or the amount claimed, exceeds one hundred dollars, or to cases where the title to real estate is in question, or to cases in chancery. They shall have exclusive jurisdiction in such criminal cases as the General Assembly may prescribe: Provided, further, Such jurisdiction shall not extend to cases where the punishment exceeds a fine of one hundred dollars or imprisonment for thirty days. In criminal matters beyond their jurisdiction to try, they shall sit as Examining Courts, and commit, discharge or (except in capital cases) recognize persons charged with such offences, subject to such regulations as the General Assembly may provide. They shall also have the power to bind over to keep the peace and for good behavior for a time not to exceed twelve months.

Jurisdiction of Magistrates.

Examining Courts.

- Trial by Jury. SECTION 22. All persons charged with an offence shall have the right to demand and obtain a trial by jury. The jury in cases civil or criminal in all municipal Courts, and Courts inferior to Circuit Courts shall consist of six. The grand jury of each County shall consist of eighteen members, twelve of whom must agree in a matter before it can be submitted to the Court.
- Jury in inferior Courts.
- Grand jury.
- Petit jury. The petit jury of the Circuit Courts shall consist of twelve men, all of whom must agree to a verdict in order to render the same.
- Qualifications of jurors. Each juror must be a qualified elector under the provisions of this Constitution, between the ages of twenty-one and sixty-five years and of good moral character.
- Actions in Magistrates' Courts. SECTION 23. Every civil action cognizable by Magistrates shall be brought before a Magistrate in the County where the defendant resides, and every criminal action in the County where the offence was committed. In all cases tried by them, the right of appeal shall be secured under such rules and regulations as may be provided by law: Provided, That in Counties where Magistrates have separate and exclusive territorial jurisdiction, criminal causes shall be tried in the Magistrate's district where the offence was committed, subject to such provision for change of venue from one Magistrate's district to another in the same County as may be provided by the General Assembly.
- Compensation for all other officers. SECTION 24. All officers other than those named in Section nine provided for in this Article shall receive for their services such compensation as the General Assembly may from time to time by law direct.
- Powers at Chambers. SECTION 25. Each of the Justices of the Supreme Court and Judges of the Circuit Court shall have the same power at chambers to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, quo warranto, certiorari, prohibition and interlocutory writs or orders of injunction as when in open Court. The Judges of the Circuit Courts shall have such powers at chambers as the General Assembly may provide.
- Charge to juries. SECTION 26. Judges shall not charge juries in respect to matters of fact, but shall declare the law.
- Clerk of Court. SECTION 27. There shall be elected in each County, by the electors thereof, one Clerk for the Court of Common Pleas, who shall hold his office for the term of four years, and until his successor shall be elected and qualified. He shall, by virtue of his office, be Clerk of all other Courts of record held therein, but the General Assembly may provide by law for the election of a Clerk, with a like term of office, for each or any other of the Courts of record, and may authorize the Judge of the Probate Court to perform the duties of Clerk for his Court under such regulations as the General Assembly may direct. Clerks of Courts shall be removable for such cause and in such manner as shall be prescribed by law.

SECTION 28. There shall be an Attorney General for the State, who shall perform such duties as may be prescribed by law. He shall be elected by the qualified electors of the State for the term of two years, and shall receive for his services such compensation as shall be fixed by law.

Attorney General.

SECTION 29. There shall be one Solicitor for each Circuit, who shall reside therein, to be elected by the qualified electors of the Circuit, who shall hold his office for the term of four years, and shall receive for his services such compensation as shall be fixed by law. In all cases when an Attorney for the State of any Circuit fails to attend and prosecute according to law, the Court shall have power to appoint an Attorney pro tempore. In the event of the establishment of County Courts the General Assembly may provide for one Solicitor for each County in the place and instead of the Circuit Solicitor, and may prescribe his powers, duties and compensation.

Solicitor.

SECTION 30. The qualified electors of each County shall elect a Sheriff and Coroner for the term of four years, and until their successors are elected and qualified; they shall reside in their respective Counties during their continuance in office, and be disqualified for the office a second time if it should appear that they, or either of them, are in default for moneys collected by virtue of their respective offices.

Sheriff and Coroner.

SECTION 31. All writs and processes shall run and all prosecutions shall be conducted in the name of the State of South Carolina; all writs shall be attested by the Clerk of the Court from which they shall be issued; and all indictment shall conclude "against the peace and dignity of the State."

Writs.

Indictments.

SECTION 32. The General Assembly shall provide by law for the speedy publication of the decisions of the Supreme Court made under this Constitution.

Decision of

ARTICLE VI.

JURISPRUDENCE.

SECTION 1. The General Assembly shall pass laws allowing differences to be decided by arbitrators, to be appointed by the parties who may choose that mode of adjustment.

Arbitration.

SECTION 2. It shall be the duty of the General Assembly to pass laws for the change of venue in all cases, civil and criminal, over which the Circuit Courts have original jurisdiction, upon a proper showing, supported by affidavit, that a fair and impartial trial cannot be had in the County where such action or prosecution was commenced. The State shall have the same right to move for a change of venue that a defendant has for such offences as the General Assembly may prescribe. Unless a change of venue be had under the provisions of this Article the defendant shall be tried in the County where the offence was committed: Provided, however, That no change of venue shall be granted in criminal cases until after a true bill has been found by the grand jury: And Provided, further, That if a change be ordered it shall be to a County in the same Judicial Circuit.

SECTION 3. Justice shall be administered in a uniform mode of pleading without distinction between law and equity.

SECTION 4. Every Statute shall be a public law, unless otherwise declared in the Statute itself.

SECTION 5. The General Assembly, at its first session after the adoption of this Constitution, shall provide for the appointment or election of a Commissioner, whose duty it shall be to collect and revise all the General Statute law of this State then of force as well as that which shall be passed from time to time, and to properly index and arrange the said Statutes when so passed. And the said Commissioner shall reduce into a systematic Code the general statutes, including the Code of Civil Procedure, with all the amendments thereto, and shall, on the first day of the session for the year nineteen hundred and one, and at the end of every subsequent period of not more than ten years, report the result of his labors to the General Assembly, with such recommendations and suggestions as to the abridgment and amendments as may be deemed necessary or proper. Said report when ready to be made, shall be printed and a copy thereof laid upon the desk of each member of both houses of the General Assembly on the first day of the first session, but shall not be taken up for consideration until the next session of said General Assembly. The said Code shall be declared by the General Assembly, in an Act passed according to the forms of this Constitution for the enactment of laws, to be the only general statutory law of the State; but no alterations or additions to any of the laws therein contained shall be made except by Bill passed under the formalities heretofore prescribed for the passage of laws. Provision shall be made by law for filling vacancies, regulating the term of office and the compensation of said Commissioner, not exceeding five hundred dollars per annum, and imposing such other duties as may be desired. And the General Assembly shall by committee inquire into the progress of his work at each session.

SECTION 6. In the case of any prisoner lawfully in the charge, custody or control of any officer, State, County or municipal, being seized and taken from said officer through his negligence, permission or connivance, by a mob or other unlawful assemblage of persons, and at their hands suffering bodily violence or death, the said officer shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon true bill found, shall be deposed from his office pending his trial, and upon conviction shall forfeit his office, and shall, unless pardoned by the Governor, be ineligible to hold any office of trust or profit within this State. It shall be the duty of the Prosecuting Attorney within whose Circuit or County the offence may be committed to forthwith institute a prosecution against said officer, who shall be tried in such County, in the same Circuit, other than the one in which the offence was committed, as the Attorney General may elect. The fees and mileage of all material witnesses, both for the State and for the defence, shall be paid by the State Treasurer, in such manner as may be provided by law: Provided, In all cases of lynching when death ensues, the County where such lynching takes place shall, without regard to the conduct of the officers, be liable in exemplary damages of not less than two thousand dollars to the legal representatives of the person lynched: Provided, further, That any County against which a judgment has been obtained for damages in any case of lynching shall have the right to recover the amount of said judgment from the parties engaged in said lynching in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

Prisoner lynched through negligence of officer, penalty on officer.

County liable for damages.

ARTICLE VII.

COUNTIES AND COUNTY GOVERNMENT.

SECTION 1. The General Assembly may establish new Counties in the following manner: Whenever one-third of the qualified electors within the area of each section of an old County proposed to be cut off to form a new County shall petition the Governor for the creation of a new County, setting forth the boundaries and showing compliance with the requirements of this Article, the Governor shall order an election, within a reasonable time thereafter, by the qualified electors within the proposed area, in which election they shall vote "Yes" or "No" upon the question of creating said new County; and at the same election the question of a name and a County seat for such County shall be submitted to the electors.

Formation of new Counties.

County seat and name.

SECTION 2. If two-thirds of the qualified electors voting at such election shall vote "Yes" upon such questions, then the General Assembly at the next session shall establish such new County: Provided, No section of the County proposed to be dismembered shall be thus cut off without consent by a two-thirds vote of those voting in such section; and no County shall be formed without complying with all the conditions imposed in this Article. An election upon the question of forming the same proposed new County shall not be held oftener than once in four years.

Section of old County to be cut off.

Inhabitants, taxable property, area of new County. SECTION 3. No new County hereafter formed shall contain less than one one hundred and twenty-fourth part of the whole number of inhabitants of the State, nor shall it have less assessed taxable property than one and one half millions of dollars as shown by the last tax returns, nor shall it contain less area than four hundred square miles.

Area, taxable property, and inhabitants of old County. SECTION 4. No old County shall be reduced to less area than five hundred square miles, to less assessed taxable property than two million dollars, nor to a smaller population than fifteen thousand inhabitants.

Eight mile limit. SECTION 5. In the formation of new Counties no old County shall be cut within eight miles of its court house building.

Indebtedness. SECTION 6. All new Counties hereafter formed shall bear a just apportionment of the valid indebtedness of the old County or Counties from which they have been formed.

Alteration of County lines. SECTION 7. The General Assembly shall have the power to alter County lines at any time: Provided, That before any existing County line is altered the question shall be first submitted to the qualified electors of the territory proposed to be taken from one County and given to another, and shall have received two-thirds of the votes cast: Provided further, That the change shall not reduce the County from which the territory is taken below the limits prescribed in Sections 3, 4 and 5 of this Article: Provided, That the proper proportion of the existing County indebtedness of the section so transferred shall be assumed by the County to which the territory is transferred.

Removal of County seat. SECTION 8. No County seat shall be removed except by a vote of two-thirds of the qualified electors of said County voting in an election held for that purpose, but such election shall not be held in any County oftener than once in five years.

Election district. Body corporate. SECTION 9. Each County shall constitute one election district, and shall be a body politic and corporate.

Consolidation of two or more Counties SECTION 10. The General Assembly may provide for the consolidation of two or more existing Counties if a majority of the qualified electors of such Counties voting at an election held for that purpose shall vote separately therefor, but such election shall not be held oftener than once in four years in the same Counties.

Townships. SECTION 11. Each of the several townships of this State, with names and boundaries as now established by law, shall constitute a body politic and corporate, but this shall not prevent the General Assembly from organizing other townships or changing the boundaries of those already established; and the General Assembly may provide such system of township government as it shall think proper in any and all the Counties, and may make special provision for municipal government and for the protection of chartered rights and powers of municipalities.

Body corporate.

Township government.

SECTION 12. Until changed by the General Assembly, as allowed by this Constitution, the boundaries of the several Counties shall remain as now established, except that the boundaries of the County of Edgefield shall undergo such changes as are made necessary by the formation of a new County from a portion of Edgefield, to be known as Saluda, the boundaries of which are set forth in a Constitutional ordinance. The election ordered in said ordinance for the location of its County seat shall be held under the Constitution and laws now of force. And the General Assembly shall provide for the assessment of property in the County of Saluda for the fiscal year beginning January first, eighteen hundred and ninety-six, and for the collection of said taxes when assessed.

Boundaries of Counties.

Boundaries of Counties of Saluda and Edgefield.

SECTION 13. The General Assembly may at any time arrange the various Counties into Judicial Circuits, and into Congressional Districts, including the County of Saluda, as it may deem wise and proper, and may establish or alter the location of voting precincts in any County.

Judicial and Congressional Districts.

SECTION 14. Hereafter no County lines shall be so established as to pass through any incorporated city or town of this State.

No County line through city or town.

ARTICLE VIII.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS AND POLICE REGULATIONS.

SECTION 1. The General Assembly shall provide by general laws for the organization and classification of municipal corporations. The powers of each class shall be defined so that no such corporations shall have any powers or be subject to any restrictions other than all corporations of the same class. Cities and towns now existing under special charters may reorganize under the general laws of the State, and when so reorganized their special charters shall cease and determine.

Organization and classification of municipal corporations.

SECTION 2. No city or town shall be organized without the consent of the majority of the electors residing and entitled by law to vote within the district proposed to be incorporated; such consent to be ascertained in the manner and under such regulations as may be prescribed by law.

Electors must consent to organization.

SECTION 3. The General Assembly shall restrict the powers of cities and towns to levy taxes and assessments, to borrow money and to contract debts, and no tax or assessment shall be levied or debt contracted except in pursuance of law, for public purposes specified by law.

Taxes.

SECTION 4. No law shall be passed by the General Assembly granting the right to construct and operate a street or other railway, telegraph, telephone or electric plant, or to erect water or gas works for public uses or to lay mains for any purpose, without first obtaining the consent of the local authorities in control of the streets or public places proposed to be occupied for any such or like purposes.

Street railway, &c.

Water works and plants for furnishing lights.

SECTION 5. Cities and towns may acquire, by construction or purchase, and may operate, water works systems and plants for furnishing lights, and may furnish water and lights to individuals, firms and private corporations for reasonable compensation: Provided, That no such construction or purchase shall be made except upon a majority vote of the electors in said cities or towns who are qualified to vote on the bonded indebtedness of said cities or towns.

Corporate taxes must be uniform.

SECTION 6. The corporate authorities of cities and towns in this State shall be vested with power to assess and collect taxes for corporate purposes, said taxes to be uniform in respect to persons and property within the jurisdiction of the body composing the same; and all the property, except such as is exempt by law, within the limits of cities and towns shall be taxed for the payment of debts contracted under authority of law. License or privileged taxes imposed shall be graduated so as to secure a just imposition of such tax upon the classes subject thereto.

License.

Bonded debt.

SECTION 7. No city or town in this State shall hereafter incur any bonded debt which, including existing bonded indebtedness, shall exceed eight per centum of the assessed value of the taxable property therein, and no such debt shall be created without submitting the question as to the creation thereof to the qualified electors of such city or town, as provided in this Constitution for such special elections; and unless a majority of such electors voting on the question shall be in favor of creating such further bonded debt, none shall be created: Provided, That this Section shall not be construed to prevent the issuing of certificates of indebtedness in anticipation of the collection of taxes for amounts actually contained or to be contained in the taxes for the year when such certificates are issued and payable out of such taxes: And provided, further, That such cities and towns shall on the issuing of such bonds create a sinking fund for the redemption thereof at maturity. Nothing herein contained shall prevent the issuing of bonds to an amount sufficient to refund bonded indebtedness existing at the time of the adoption of this Constitution.

Certificates of indebtedness.

Sinking fund.

Refunding bonded debt.

Manufactories may be exempt from taxation.

SECTION 8. Cities and towns may exempt from taxation, by general or special ordinance, except for school purposes, manufactories established within their limits for five successive years from the time of the establishment of such manufactories: Provided, That such ordinance shall be first ratified by a majority of such qualified electors of such city or town as shall vote at an election held for that purpose.

SECTION 9. No armed police force or representatives of a detective agency shall ever be brought into this State for the suppression of domestic violence; nor shall any other armed or unarmed body of men be brought in for that purpose, except upon the application of the General Assembly or of the Executive of this State (when the General Assembly is not in session), as provided in the Constitution of the United States. The General Assembly shall provide proper penalties for the enforcement of the provisions of this Section.

Armed police force.

SECTION 10. It shall be the duty of the General Assembly to create Boards of Health wherever they may be necessary, giving to them power and authority to make such regulations as shall protect the health of the community and abate nuisances.

Boards of Health.

SECTION 11. In the exercise of the police power the General Assembly shall have the right to prohibit the manufacture and sale and retail of alcoholic liquors or beverages within the State. The General Assembly may license persons or corporations to manufacture and sell and retail alcoholic liquors or beverages within the State under such rules and restrictions as it deems proper; or the General Assembly may prohibit the manufacture and sale and retail of alcoholic liquors and beverages within the State, and may authorize and empower State, County and municipal officers, all or either, under the authority and in the name of the State, to buy in any market and retail within the State liquors and beverages in such packages and quantities, under such rules and regulations, as it deems expedient: Provided, That no license shall be granted to sell alcoholic beverages in less quantities than one-half pint, or to sell them between sundown and sunrise, or to sell them to be drunk on the premises: And provided, further, That the General Assembly shall not delegate to any municipal corporation the power to issue licenses to sell the same.

Alcoholic liquor and beverages.

SECTION 12. All prize-fighting is prohibited in this State, and the General Assembly shall provide by proper laws for the prevention and punishment of the same.

Prize fighting.

ARTICLE IX.

CORPORATIONS.

SECTION 1. The term corporation as used in this Article includes all associations and joint stock companies having powers and privileges not possessed by individuals or partnerships, and excludes municipal corporations.

Corporation defined.

SECTION 2. No charter of incorporation shall be granted, changed or amended by special law, except in the case of such charitable, educational, penal or reformatory corporations as may be under the control of the State, or may be provided for in this Constitution, but the General Assembly shall provide by general laws for changing or amending existing charters, and for the organization of all corporations hereafter to be created, and any such law so passed, as well as all charters now existing or hereafter created, shall be subject to future repeal or alteration: Provided, That the General Assembly may by a two-thirds vote of each house on a concurrent resolution allow a Bill for a special charter to be introduced, and when so introduced may pass the same as other Bills.

Charter of incorporation.

Transporting and transmitting corporations taxed as such.

SECTION 3. All railroad, express, canal and other corporations engaged in transportation for hire, and all telegraph and other corporations engaged in the business of transmitting intelligence for hire are common carriers in their respective lines of business, and are subject to liability and taxation as such. It shall be unlawful for any such corporation to make any contract relieving it of its common law liability or limiting the same, in reference to the carriage of passengers.

Common law liability.

Agent of corporation.

SECTION 4. Every corporation organized or doing business in this State, other than religious, educational or benevolent associations, shall have and maintain at least one agent in this State upon whom process may be served, and at least one public office for the transaction of its business: Provided, This Section shall not apply to mercantile corporations: Provided, That nothing contained in this Section shall be construed to prohibit the General Assembly from providing for the service of process on any agent of a corporation so as to bind such corporation.

Office of corporation.

Discrimination in charges.

SECTION 5. No discrimination in charges or facilities for transportation of the same classes of freight or passengers, or for the transmission of intelligence within this State, or coming from or going to any other State, shall be made by any railroad or other transportation or transmission company between places or persons.

Persons and property transported by any railroad or any other transportation or transmission company or corporation, shall be delivered at any station, landing or port at charges not exceeding the charges for the transportation of persons and property of the same class, in the same direction, to any more distant station, landing or port. Excursion and commutation tickets may be issued at special rates. This Section shall not prevent the Railroad Commission from making such competitive rates as shall, in their judgment, be just and equitable between the railroads and the public, at all junctional and competitive points or at points where water competition controls the traffic or at points where the competition of points located in other States may make necessary the prescribing of different rates for the protection of the commerce of this State.

Excursion tickets.

Competitive rates.

SECTION 6. Any railroad or other transportation corporation, and any telegraph or other transmitting corporation, organized under the laws of this State, shall have the right to connect its roads or lines, at the State line, with those in other States, and shall have the right to intersect with or cross any other railroad, street railway, transportation road or transmitting line, and shall each receive and transport the freight, passengers, cars (loaded or empty) and messages delivered to it by another without delay or discrimination.

Transportation company may connect or cross lines of another.

SECTION 7. No railroad, or other transportation company, and no telegraph or other transmitting corporation, or the lessees, purchasers or managers of any such corporation, shall consolidate the stock, property or franchises of such corporation with, or lease or purchase the works or franchises of, or in any way control, any other railroad or other transportation, telegraph or other transmitting company owning or having under its control a parallel or competing line; and the question whether railroads or other transportation, telegraph or other transmitting companies are parallel or competing lines shall, when demanded by the party complainant, be decided by a jury as in other civil causes.

Consolidation of stock with competing line.

Jury may decide whether lines are parallel or competing.

SECTION 8. The General Assembly shall not grant to any foreign corporation or association a license to build, operate or lease any railroad in this State; but in all cases where a railroad is to be built or operated, or is now being operated, in this State, and the same shall be partly in this State and partly in another State, or in other States, the owners or projectors thereof shall first become incorporated under the laws of this State; nor shall any foreign corporation or association lease or operate any railroad in this State, or purchase the same or any interest therein. Consolidation of any railroad lines and corporations in this State with others shall be allowed only where the consolidated company shall become a domestic corporation of this State. No general or special law shall ever be passed for the benefit of any foreign corporation operating a railroad under any existing license of this State or under any existing lease, and no grant of any right or privilege and no exemption from any burden shall be made to any such foreign corporation, except upon the condition that the owners or stockholders thereof shall first organize a corporation in this State under the laws thereof, and shall thereafter operate and manage the same and the business thereof under said domestic charter.

No foreign corporation can build or operate a railroad in this State.

No general or special law for foreign corporation, except on conditions.

SECTION 9. The General Assembly shall have no power to grant any special charter for banking purposes, but corporations or associations may be formed for such purposes under general laws, with such privileges, powers and limitations, not inconsistent with this Constitution, as it may deem proper. The General Assembly shall provide by law for the thorough examination and inspection of all banking and fiscal corporations of this State.

Banks.

Stock issued for money or labor.

SECTION 10. Stock or bonds shall not be issued by any corporation save for labor done, or money or property actually received or subscribed; and all fictitious increase of stock or indebtedness shall be void.

Election of officers of corporations.

SECTION 11. The General Assembly shall provide by law for the election of directors, trustees or managers of all corporations so that each stockholder shall be allowed to cast, in person or by proxy, as many votes as the number of shares he owns multiplied by the number of directors, trustees or managers to be elected, the same to be cast for any one candidate or to be distributed among two or more candidates.

Business of corporations.

SECTION 12. Corporations shall not engage in any business except that specifically authorized by their charters or necessarily incident thereto.

Trusts, combinations, &c.

SECTION 13. The General Assembly shall enact laws to prevent all trusts, combinations, contracts and agreements against the public welfare; and to prevent abuses, unjust discriminations and extortion in all charges of transporting and transmitting companies; and shall pass laws for the supervision and regulation of such companies by commission or otherwise, and shall provide adequate penalties, to the extent, if necessary for that purpose, of forfeiture of their franchises.

The Railroad Commission.

SECTION 14. A Commission is hereby established to be known as "the Railroad Commission," which shall be composed of not less than three members, whose powers over all transporting and transmitting corporations, and duties, manner of election and term of office shall be regulated by law; and until otherwise provided by law the said Commissioners shall have the same powers and jurisdiction, perform the same duties and receive the same compensation as now conferred, prescribed and allowed by law to the existing Railroad Commissioners: Provided, That the members thereof shall be elected at the expiration of the terms of the present Railroad Commissioners, who are hereby continued in office for the terms for which they were elected.

Rights and remedies of employees.

SECTION 15. Every employee of any railroad corporation shall have the same rights and remedies for any injury suffered by him from the acts or omissions of said corporations or its employees as are allowed by law to other persons not employees, when the injury results from the negligence of a superior agent or officer, or of a person having a right to control or direct the services of a party injured, and also when the injury results from the negligence of a fellow servant engaged in another department of labor from that of the party injured, or of a fellow servant on another train of cars, or one engaged about a different piece of work. Knowledge by any employee injured of the defective or unsafe character or condition of any machinery, ways or appliances shall be no defence to an action for injury caused thereby, except as to conductors or engineers in charge of dangerous or unsafe cars or engines voluntarily operated by them. When death ensues from any injury to employees, the legal or personal representatives of the person injured shall have the same right and remedies as are allowed by law to such representatives of other persons. Any contract or agreement, expressed or implied, made by any employee to waive the benefit of this Section shall be null and void; and this Section shall not be construed to deprive any employee of a corporation, or his legal or personal representative, of any remedy or right that he now has by the law of the land. The General Assembly may extend the remedies herein provided for to any other class of employees.

SECTION 16. All existing charters or grants of corporate franchise under which organizations have not in good faith taken place at the adoption of this Constitution shall be subject to the provisions of this Article. Existing charters.

SECTION 17. The General Assembly shall never remit the forfeiture of the franchise of any corporation now chartered, nor alter nor amend the charter thereof, nor pass any general or special law for the benefit of such corporation, except upon the condition that such corporation shall thereafter hold its charter and franchise subject to the provisions of this Constitution, and the acceptance by any corporation of any provision of any such laws or the taking of any benefit or advantage from the same shall be conclusively held an agreement by such corporation to hold its charter and franchise under the provisions of this Article. Laws for benefit of corporation passed only on conditions.

SECTION 18. The stockholders of all insolvent corporations shall be individually liable to the creditors thereof only to the extent of the amount remaining due to the corporation upon the stock owned by them: Provided, That stockholders in banks or banking institutions shall be liable to depositors therein in a sum equal in amount to their stock over and above the face value of the same. Liability of stockholders.
In banks.

SECTION 19. Nothing prohibited in this Article shall be permitted to be done by any corporation or company, persons or person, either for its or their own benefit or otherwise, by its or their holding or controlling in its or their own name or otherwise, or in the name of any other person or persons, or other corporation or company whatsoever, a majority of the capital stock, or of bonds having voting power, of any railroad or transportation company, or corporation created by or existing under the laws of this State, or doing business within this State. Corporations cannot do act prohibited through controlling interest in other corporations.

SECTION 20. No right of way shall be appropriated to the use of any corporation until full compensation therefor shall be first made to the owner or secured by a deposit of money, irrespective of any benefit from any improvement proposed by such corpora- Right of way.

tion, which compensation shall be ascertained by a jury of twelve men, in a Court of record, as shall be prescribed by law.

SECTION 21. The General Assembly shall enforce the provisions of this Article by appropriate legislation.

ARTICLE X.

FINANCE AND TAXATION.

Taxation and assessment. SECTION 1. The General Assembly shall provide by law for a uniform and equal rate of assessment and taxation, and shall prescribe regulations to secure a just valuation for taxation of all property, real, personal and possessory, except mines and mining claims, the products of which alone shall be taxed; and also excepting such property as may be exempted by law for municipal, educational, literary, scientific, religious or charitable purposes: Provided, however, That the General Assembly may impose a capitation tax upon such domestic animals as from their nature and habits are destructive of other property: And provided, further, That the General Assembly may provide for a graduated tax on incomes, and for a graduated license on occupations and business.

Expenses of State Government. SECTION 2. The General Assembly shall provide for an annual tax sufficient to defray the estimated expenses of the State for each year, and whenever it shall happen that the ordinary expenses of the State for any year shall exceed the income of the State for such year the General Assembly shall provide for levying a tax for the ensuing year sufficient, with other sources of income, to pay the deficiency of the preceding year together with the estimated expenses of the ensuing year.

Tax shall be levied in pursuance of law. SECTION 3. No tax shall be levied except in pursuance of a law which shall distinctly state the object of the same; to which object the tax shall be applied.

Property exempt from taxation. SECTION 4. There shall be exempted from taxation all County, township and municipal property used exclusively for public purposes and not for revenue, and the property of all schools, colleges and institutions of learning, all charitable institutions in the nature of asylums for the infirm, deaf and dumb, blind, idiotic and indigent persons, except where the profits of such institutions are applied to private uses; all public libraries, churches, parsonages and burying grounds; but property of associations and societies, although connected with charitable objects, shall not be exempt from State, County or municipal taxation: Provided, That as to real estate this exemption shall not extend beyond the buildings and premises actually occupied by such schools, colleges, institutions of learning, asylums, libraries, churches, parsonages and burial grounds, although connected with charitable objects.

SECTION 5. The corporate authorities of Counties, townships, school districts, cities, towns and villages may be vested with power to assess and collect taxes for corporate purposes; such taxes to be uniform in respect to persons and property within the jurisdiction of the body imposing the same. All shares of stockholders in any bank or banking association located in this State, whether now or hereafter incorporated, or organized under the laws of this State or of the United States, shall be listed at their true value in money, and taxed for municipal purposes in the city, ward, town or incorporated village, where such bank is located, and not elsewhere: Provided, That the words "true value in money" as used in line 12 [line 12 of original MS. and line 9 of this printing.—EDITOR] of this Section shall be so construed as to mean and include all surplus or extra moneys, capital, and every species of personal property of value owned or in possession of any such bank: Provided, A like rule of taxation shall apply to the stockholders of all corporations other than banking institutions. And the General Assembly shall require that all the property, except that herein permitted to be exempted within the limits of municipal corporations, shall be taxed for corporate purposes and for the payment of debts contracted under authority of law. The bonded debt of any County, township, school district, municipal corporation or political division or subdivision of this State shall never exceed eight per centum of the assessed value of all the taxable property therein. And no County, township, municipal corporation or other political division of this State shall hereafter be authorized to increase its bonded indebtedness if at the time of any proposed increase thereof the aggregate amount of its already existing bonded debt amounts to eight per centum of the value of all taxable property therein as ascertained by the valuation for State taxation.

Taxes may be levied for corporate purposes.

Share of stockholders.

Limit of bonded debt.

And wherever there shall be several political divisions or municipal corporations covering or extending over the same territory, or portions thereof, possessing a power to levy a tax or contract a debt, then each of such political divisions or municipal corporations shall so exercise its power to increase its debt under the foregoing eight per cent. limitation that the aggregate debt over and upon any territory of this State shall never exceed fifteen per centum of the value of all taxable property in such territory as valued for taxation by the State: Provided, That nothing herein shall prevent the issue of bonds for the purpose of paying or refunding any valid municipal debt heretofore contracted in excess of eight per centum of the assessed value of all the taxable property therein.

SECTION 6. The credit of the State shall not be pledged or loaned for the benefit of any individual, company, association or corporation; and the State shall not become a joint owner of or stockholder in any company, association or corporation. The General Assembly shall not have power to authorize any County or township to levy a tax or issue bonds for any purpose except for educational purposes, to build and repair public roads, buildings and bridges, to maintain and support prisoners, pay jurors, County officers, and for litigation, quarantine and Court expenses, and for ordinary County purposes, to support paupers, and pay past indebtedness.

For what purposes tax levied or bonds issued.

Scrap, certificate, or evidence of State debt.

SECTION 7. No scrip, certificate or other evidence of State indebtedness shall be issued except for the redemption of stock, bonds or other evidence of indebtedness previously issued, or for such debts as are expressly authorized in this Constitution.

Receipts and expenditures.

SECTION 8. An accurate statement of the receipts and expenditures of the public money shall be published with the laws of each regular session of the General Assembly, in such manner as may by law be directed.

Money.

SECTION 9. Money shall be drawn from the Treasury only in pursuance of appropriations made by law.

Fiscal year.

SECTION 10. The fiscal year shall commence on the first day of January in each year.

Public debt.

SECTION 11. To the end that the public debt of South Carolina may not hereafter be increased without the due consideration and free consent of the people of the State, the General Assembly is hereby forbidden to create any further debt or obligation, either by the loan of the credit of the State, by guaranty, endorsement or otherwise, except for the ordinary and current business of the State, without first submitting the question as to the creation of such new debt, guaranty, endorsement or loan of its credit to the qualified electors of this State at a general State election; and unless two-thirds of the qualified electors of this State, voting on the question, shall be in favor of increasing the debt, guaranty, endorsement or loan of its credit, none shall be created or made. And any debt contracted by the State shall be by loan on State bonds, of amounts not less than fifty dollars each, bearing interest, payable not more than forty years after final passage of the law authorizing such debt. A correct registry of all such bonds shall be kept by the Treasurer in numerical order, so as to always exhibit the number and amount unpaid, and to whom severally made payable. And the General Assembly shall levy an annual tax sufficient to pay the annual interest on said bonds.

Safe-keeping of public funds.

SECTION 12. Suitable laws shall be passed by the General Assembly for the safe-keeping, transfer and disbursement of the State, County and school funds; and all officers and other persons charged with the same shall keep an accurate entry of each sum received, and of each payment and transfer, and shall give such security for the faithful discharge of such duties as the General Assembly may provide. And it shall be the duty of the General Assembly to pass laws making embezzlement of such funds a felony, punishable by fine and imprisonment, proportioned to the amount of the deficiency or embezzlement, and the party convicted of such felony shall be disqualified from ever holding any office of honor or emolument in this State: Provided, however, That the General Assembly, by a two-thirds vote, may remove the disability upon payment in full of the principal and interest of the sum embezzled.

Embezzlement of, felony.

General Assembly may remove.

SECTION 13. The General Assembly shall provide for the assessment of all property for taxation; and State, County, township, school, municipal and all other taxes shall be levied on the same assessment, which shall be that made for State taxes; and the taxes for the subdivisions of the State shall be levied and collected by the respective fiscal authorities thereof.

One assessment for all taxes.

ARTICLE XI.

EDUCATION.

SECTION 1. The supervision of public instruction shall be vested in a State Superintendent of Education, who shall be elected for the term of two years by the qualified electors of the State, in such manner and at such time as the other State officers are elected; his powers, duties and compensation shall be defined by the General Assembly.

Superintendent of Education.

SECTION 2. There shall be a State Board of Education, composed of the Governor, the State Superintendent of Education, and not exceeding seven persons to be appointed by the Governor every four years, of which Board the Governor shall be Chairman, and the State Superintendent of Education, Secretary. This Board shall have the regulation of examination of teachers applying for certificates of qualification, and shall award all scholarships, and have such other powers and duties as may be determined by law. The traveling expenses of the persons to be appointed shall be provided for by the General Assembly.

State Board of Education.

SECTION 3. The General Assembly shall make provision for the election or appointment of all other necessary school officers, and shall define their qualifications, powers, duties, compensation and terms of office.

School officers

SECTION 4. The salaries of the State and County school officers and compensation of County Treasurers for collecting and disbursing school moneys shall not be paid out of the school funds, but shall be otherwise provided for by the General Assembly.

Salaries of school officers and County Treasurer.

SECTION 5. The General Assembly shall provide for a liberal system of free public schools for all children between the ages of six and twenty-one years, and for the division of the Counties

Free public schools.

School districts, into suitable school districts, as compact in form as practicable, having regard to natural boundaries, and not to exceed forty-nine nor be less than nine square miles in area: Provided, That in cities of ten thousand inhabitants and over, this limitation of area shall not apply: Provided, further, That when any school district laid out under this Section shall embrace cities or towns already embraced into special school districts in which graded school buildings have been erected by the issue of bonds, or by special taxation, or by donation, all the territory included in said school district shall bear its just proportion of any tax that may be levied to liquidate such bonds or support the public schools therein: Provided, further, That nothing in this Article contained shall be construed as a repeal of the laws under which the several graded school districts of this State are organized. The present division of the Counties into school districts and the provisions of law now governing the same shall remain until changed by the General Assembly.

SECTION 6. The existing County Boards of Commissioners of the several Counties, or such officer or officers as may hereafter be vested with the same or similar powers and duties, shall levy an annual tax of three mills on the dollar upon all the taxable property in their respective Counties, which tax shall be collected at the same time and by the same officers as the other taxes for the same year, and shall be held in the County treasury of the respective Counties; and the said fund shall be apportioned among the school districts of the County in proportion to the number of pupils enrolled in the public schools of the respective districts, and the officer or officers charged by law with making said apportionment shall notify the Trustees of the respective school districts thereof, who shall expend and disburse the same as the General Assembly may prescribe. The General Assembly shall define "enrollment." Not less than three Trustees for each school district shall be selected from the qualified voters and taxpayers therein, in such manner and for such terms as the General Assembly may determine, except in cases of special school districts now existing, where the provisions of law now governing the same shall remain unchanged by the General Assembly: Provided, The manner of the selection of said Trustees need not be uniform throughout the State. There shall be assessed on all taxable polls in the State between the ages of twenty-one and sixty years (excepting Confederate soldiers above the age of fifty years,) an annual tax of one dollar on each poll, the proceeds of which tax shall be expended for school purposes in the several school districts in which it is collected. Whenever during the three next ensuing fiscal years the tax levied by the said County Boards of Commissioners or similar officers and the poll tax shall not yield an amount equal to three dollars per capita of the number of children enrolled in the public schools of each SECTION 9. The property or credit of the State of South Carolina, or of any County, city, town, township, school district, or other subdivision of the said State, or any public money, from whatever source derived, shall not, by gift, donation, loan, contract, appropriation, or otherwise, be used, directly or indirectly, in aid or maintenance of any college, school, hospital, orphan house, or other institution, society or organization, of whatever kind, which is wholly or in part under the direction or control of any church or of any religious or sectarian denomination, society or organization.

Gifts for educational purposes.

SECTION 10. All gifts of every kind for educational purposes, if accepted by the General Assembly, shall be applied and used for the purposes designated by the giver, unless the same be in conflict with the provisions of this Constitution.

Gifts to State.

SECTION 11. All gifts to the State where the purpose is not designated, all escheated property, the net assets or funds of all estates or copartnerships in the hands of the Courts of the State where there have been no claimants for the same within the last seventy years, and other money coming into the Treasury of the State by reason of the twelfth Section of an Act entitled "An Act to provide a mode of distribution of the moneys as direct tax from the citizens of this State by the United States in trust to the State of South Carolina," approved the twenty-fourth day of December, in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-one, together with such other means as the General Assembly may provide, shall be securely invested as the State School Fund, and the annual income thereof shall be apportioned by the General Assembly for the purpose of maintaining the public schools.

Assets of estates or copartnerships.

ARTICLE XIV.

EMINENT DOMAIN.

Boundary rivers.

SECTION 1. The State shall have concurrent jurisdiction on all rivers bordering on this State, so far as such rivers shall form a common boundary to this and any other State bounded by the same; and they, together with all navigable waters within the limits of the State, shall be common highways and forever free, as well to the inhabitants of this State as to the citizens of the United States, without any tax or impost therefor, unless the same be expressly provided for by the General Assembly.

Title to certain lands.

SECTION 2. The title to all lands and other property which have heretofore accrued to this State by grant, gift, purchase, forfeiture, escheats or otherwise shall vest in the State of South Carolina, the same as though no change had taken place.

Ultimate property in lands.

SECTION 3. The people of the State are declared to possess the ultimate property in and to all lands within the jurisdiction of the State; and all lands the title to which shall fail from defect of heirs shall revert or escheat to the people.

ARTICLE XV.

IMPEACHMENT.

SECTION 1. The House of Representatives shall have the sole power of impeachment. A vote of two-thirds of all the members elected shall be required for an impeachment. Any officer impeached shall thereby be suspended from office until judgment in the case shall have been pronounced; and the office shall be filled during the trial in such manner as may be provided by law.

Power of impeachment.

Officer impeached.

SECTION 2. All impeachments shall be tried by the Senate, and when sitting for that purpose they shall be under oath or affirmation. No person shall be convicted except by a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected. When the Governor is impeached, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, or if he be disqualified, the Senior Justice shall preside, with a casting vote in all preliminary questions.

Senatetry impeachment.

SECTION 3. The Governor and all other executive and judicial officers shall be liable to impeachment; but judgment in such cases shall not extend further than removal from office. The persons convicted shall, nevertheless, be liable to indictment, trial and punishment according to law.

Officers liable to.

SECTION 4. For any wilful neglect of duty, or other reasonable cause, which shall not be sufficient ground of impeachment, the Governor shall remove any executive or judicial officer on the address of two-thirds of each house of the General Assembly: Provided, That the cause or causes for which said removal may be required shall be stated at length in such address, and entered on the Journals of each house: And provided, further, That the officer intended to be removed shall be notified of such cause or causes, and shall be admitted to a hearing in his own defence, or by his counsel, or by both, before any vote for such address; and in all cases the vote shall be taken by yeas and nays, and be entered on the Journal of each house respectively.

Removal of officers.

ARTICLE XVI.

AMENDMENT AND REVISION OF THE CONSTITUTION.

SECTION 1. Any amendment or amendments to this Constitution may be proposed in the Senate or House of Representatives. If the same be agreed to by two-thirds of the members elected to each house, such amendment or amendments shall be entered on the Journals respectively, with the yeas and nays taken thereon; and the same shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the Amendments.

State at the next general election thereafter for Representatives; and if a majority of the electors qualified to vote for members of the General Assembly, voting thereon, shall vote in favor of such amendment or amendments, and a majority of each branch of the next General Assembly shall, after such an election and before another, ratify the same amendment or amendments, by yeas and nays, the same shall become part of the Constitution: Provided, That such amendment or amendments shall have been read three times, on three several days, in each house.

Two or more. SECTION 2. If two or more amendments shall be submitted at the same time, they shall be submitted in such manner that the electors shall vote for or against each of such amendments separately.

Constitutional Convention. SECTION 3. Whenever two-thirds of the members elected to each branch of the General Assembly shall think it necessary to call a Convention to revise, amend or change this Constitution, they shall recommend to the electors to vote for or against a Convention at the next election for Representatives; and if a majority of all the electors voting at said election shall have voted for a Convention, the General Assembly shall, at its next session, provide by law for calling the same; and such Convention shall consist of a number of members equal to that of the most numerous branch of the General Assembly.

ORDINANCES

PASSED BY THE

South Carolina Constitutional Convention

OF 1895.

---

THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA:

At a Convention of the people of the State of South Carolina begun and holden at Columbia on the tenth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, and thence continued by divers adjournments to the fourth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five.

AN ORDINANCE

TO ESTABLISH A NEW JUDICIAL AND ELECTION COUNTY FROM A PORTION OF THE TERRITORY OF EDGEFIELD COUNTY, TO BE CALLED SALUDA, WITH BOUNDARIES AS HEREINAFTER DESCRIBED.

We, the people of the State of South Carolina, by our delegates in Convention assembled, do ordain:

SECTION 1. That a new judicial and election County, which shall be known as Saluda County, shall be formed, and is hereby authorized to be formed, with the following boundaries, to wit:

Beginning at the centre of Big Saluda River at a point opposite the corner of Edgefield and Lexington Counties, thence the Edgefield and Lexington line to the corner of Lexington and Aiken Counties, thence the Edgefield and Aiken line to a point three miles north of where the public road crosses said line near Lybrand's old mill, thence a straight line to ten-mile post on public highway leading from Edgefield to Columbia near the residence of J. W. L. Bartley, thence a straight line to the junction of the public road leading from Pleasant Cross with the Long Cane road near Wm. Lott's, thence by the Long Cane road to Matt. Mathis' Cross Roads, thence a straight line to Owdom's post-office, thence a straight line to Little Red Hill school house near Dr. Landrum's old place, thence a straight line to a point on the north-western line of Pine Grove Township, one mile north of Double Bridges, thence along the northwestern boundary of Pine Grove Township, to the point on the old Charleston and Cambridge road where it crosses Halfway Swamp Creek, thence down the middle of Halfway Swamp Creek to a point in the middle of Saluda River opposite the mouth of said creek, thence down the middle of Big Saluda River to the initial point; and the territory embraced within the said lines shall be known as the County of Saluda.

SECTION 2. That J. H. Edwards, B. W. Crouch, Alvin Ethredge, P. C. Stevens, B. L. Canghai, James P. Bean, C. P. Boozer, J. R. Watson, and J. B. Suddath be, and are hereby, appointed Commissioners to have the boundaries of said new County Saluda as above indicated, surveyed and properly marked, as well as to designate and establish the County seat: Provided, That the County seat shall be located within three (3) miles of the geographical centre of the County, to be ascertained by drawing diagonal lines from the four corners of the County and taking the point of crossing as such centre, the particular site to be decided by vote of the people in said County at an election which shall be held in accordance with law by order of the Governor; and to provide suitable buildings for the several Court and County officers, and to select and purchase or procure sites for the usual public buildings, and contract for and superintend the erection of the court house and jail thereon, and said public buildings shall be built at the expense of the citizens of the said County of Saluda; and to meet the said demand a special tax, not exceeding two mills on the dollar of the assessed value of real and personal property in said County, be levied by the proper County officials hereinafter provided for, in accordance with the laws now in force regulating the assessment and collection of taxes.

SECTION 3. That an election shall be held in the County of Saluda on Tuesday following the first Monday in November, A. D. 1896, or on such other day as may be provided by law hereinafter, for members of the General Assembly and for the regular County officers provided for by the Constitution and laws of the State.

SECTION 4. That until the next apportionment of Representatives the said County of Saluda shall be entitled to two Representatives.

SECTION 5. That the voting precincts heretofore established by law in that portion of Edgefield County embraced in the limits of Saluda County shall be the precincts of Saluda County.

SECTION 6. That the County of Saluda be, and is hereby, attached to the Second Congressional District, and shall form part and parcel of the Fifth Judicial Circuit, and that the regular terms of the Courts of General Sessions and Common Pleas shall be held at such times as shall be fixed by law; and that the Trial Justices located in that portion of Edgefield County embraced in the limits of Saluda County shall be continued in office until their successors shall have been appointed and qualified: Provided, however, That from and after the time this ordinance goes into effect they shall be confined and limited in their official capacity, duty and power to said limits of Saluda County.

SECTION 7. That from and after the first day of December, A. D. 1896, all suits pending in the Courts of Edgefield of which the defendants reside in that portion of said County now established as the County of Saluda, and all indictments pending in the said County of Edgefield where the offence was committed in that part of said County now established as the County of Saluda, shall be transferred to the Calendars of the Courts of the said County of Saluda; and all records, commissions and other papers belonging to any of the said suits or indictments, together with all the legal incidents thereto appertaining, shall be transferred to the Clerk of the Court of the said County of Saluda.

SECTION 8. That the Governor be, and is hereby, authorized and empowered to appoint a Commission of five persons, two of whom shall be residents of the County of Edgefield, two residents of the new County of Saluda, and one resident of some other County of the State, which said Commission shall divide and apportion between the two Counties herein provided for the present lawful bonu fide indebtedness of the old County of Edgefield, having regard to the amount of unpaid taxes due to the said County of Edgefield.

SECTION 9. The General Assembly may pass any Act not inconsistent with this Ordinance to carry the same into effect.

Done in Columbia, the sixteenth day of October, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five.

JNO. GARY EVANS,

President of Convention.

Attest:

S. W. VANCE,

Secretary of Convention.

THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA:

At a Convention of the people of the State of South Carolina begun and holden at Columbia on the tenth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, and thence continued by divers adjournments to the fourth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five.

AN ORDINANCE

TO PROVIDE AN ALPHABETICAL INDEX AND MARGINAL NOTES TO THE CONSTITUTION AND ORDINANCES OF THE CONVENTION OF THE YEAR 1895.

Whereas, it is desirable to facilitate and afford easy reference to the provisions of the Constitution of the year 1895; now,

Be it ordained by the people of the State of South Carolina, in Convention assembled, and by the authority of the same:

SECTION 1. That C. M. Eflird is hereby authorized and appointed to prepare a complete alphabetical index, with marginal notes, of the Constitution and Ordinances adopted by this Convention, to form a part of this Constitution and Ordinances when printed, and that he receive as compensation therefor fifty dollars, the same to be paid him by the State Treasurer upon the warrant of the Comptroller-General.

JNO. GARY EVANS,

President.

Attest:

S. W. VANCE,

Secretary of Convention.

THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA .

At a Convention of the people of the State of South Carolina, begun and holden at Columbia on the tenth day of Septeniber, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, and thence continued by divers adjournments to the fourth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five.

AN ORDINANCE

TO PROVIDE FOR THE PAYMENT OF INTEREST ON THE PUBLIC DEBT OF THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA TO BECOME DUE ON THE FIRST DAY OF JANUARY, A. D. 1896, AND TO REQUIRE THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY TO MAKE APPROPRIATIONS FOR THAT PURPOSE.

We, the people of South Carolina, by our delegates in Convention assembled, do ordain :

SECTION 1. That the Governor and State Treasurer be, and are hereby, authorized to make arrangements for the payment of the semi-annual interest due on the public debt of the State on the first day of January, A. D. 1896, and, if necessary, in anticipation of the collection of taxes, they are hereby authorized to borrow for that purpose a sum not exceeding one hundred and sixty thousand dollars.

SECTION 2. That the General Assembly, at its next session, is hereby required and directed to make an appropriation for the payment of said loan.

Done in Convention, in Columbia, on the third day of December,
A. D. 1895.

JNO. GARY EVANS,
President of Convention.

Attest :

S. W. VANCE,
Secretary of Convention.

THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA :

At a Convention of the people of the State of South Carolina, begun and holden at Columbia on the tenth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, and thence continued by divers adjournments to the fourth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five.

AN ORDINANCE

TO AUTHORIZE THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY TO PROVIDE FOR A SINKING FUND IN THE SEVERAL COUNTIES OF THE STATE TO ENABLE THE SAME TO DO BUSINESS ON A CASH BASIS.

Whereas in most, if not in all, of the Counties of the State the taxes are never realized until a year after the levy, and consequently the contracts for ordinary County purposes and for the running of the schools have to be made on a credit instead of a cash basis; and whereas this is an evil that ought to be remedied, Therefore,

Be it ordained by the people of the State of South Carolina, in Convention assembled, and by the authority of the same :

SECTION 1. That the General Assembly may provide for an annual tax levy, not to exceed one-half of one mill, in each County not now on a cash basis. The proceeds of all such levies shall be used as a sinking fund for each and every County in which it is levied and collected, and shall be invested or paid out as the General Assembly shall direct, until an amount sufficient shall have been collected to put such Counties on a cash basis, then such annual levies shall cease.

Done in Convention, in Columbia, on the third day of December,

A. D. 1895.

JNO. GARY EVANS,
President of Convention.

Attest :

S. W. VANCE,
Secretary of Convention.

AN ORDINANCE

IN REGARD TO PAYING THE STATE PRINTER.

Be it ordained by the people of the State of South Carolina, in Convention assembled :

That the Comptroller-General be authorized to audit the accounts of the State Printer for work done for the Convention before or after the adjournment sine die, and to draw his warrant upon the State Treasurer therefor upon the production of the proper vouchers.

Done in Convention, in Columbia, on the third day of December,
A. D. 1895.

JNO. GARY EVANS,
President of Convention.

Attest :
S. W. VANCE,
Secretary of Convention.

AN ORDINANCE

TO PROVIDE FOR THE PAY OF THE COMMISSIONERS AND MANAGERS OF ELECTION.

Be it ordained by the people of the State of South Carolina :

That the General Assembly, at its next session, shall provide reasonable compensation for the Commissioners, Managers and other officers, who conducted the election for members of this Constitutional Convention.

Done in Convention, in Columbia, on the third day of December,
A. D. 1895.

JNO. GARY EVANS,
President of Convention.

Attest :
S. W. VANCE,

THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA:

At a Convention of the people of the State of South Carolina begun and holden at Columbia on the tenth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, and thence continued by divers adjournments to the fourth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five.

AN ORDINANCE

TO PROVIDE THAT THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY MAY ENACT LAWS NECESSARY TO VALIDATE AND CARRY INTO EFFECT THE SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE CAPITAL STOCK OF THE CAROLINA, KNOXVILLE AND WESTERN RAILROAD COMPANY, HERETOFORE VOTED FOR AND AUTHORIZED BY THE QUALIFIED ELECTORS OF GREENVILLE COUNTY.

We, the people of South Carolina, by our delegates in Convention assembled, do ordain:

SECTION 1. That nothing contained in the Constitution adopted by the people of South Carolina, now in Convention assembled, shall inhibit the General Assembly from enacting all laws necessary to validate and carry into effect the subscription to the capital stock of the Carolina, Knoxville and Western Railroad Company, heretofore voted for and authorized by the qualified electors of Greenville County: Provided, That said railroad company shall comply with all the conditions upon which the said bonds were originally voted: And provided, further, That the qualified electors of said County shall reaffirm the grant of authority to issue said bonds at an election called for the purpose within such time as the General Assembly may prescribe.

Done in Convention, in Columbia, on the third day of December, A. D. 1895.

JNO. GARY EVANS,
President of Convention.

Attest:
S. W. VANCE,

AN ORDINANCE

TO PROVIDE FOR THE PAYMENT OF THE PER DIEM AND MILEAGE OF DELEGATES, OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES OF THE CONVENTION AND OTHER NECESSARY EXPENSES, AND TO REQUIRE THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY TO MAKE ADDITIONAL APPROPRIATIONS TO PAY THE SAME.

We, the people of South Carolina, by our delegates in Convention assembled, do ordain:

SECTION 1. That the amount of $30,000. if so much be necessary, in addition to the $30,000 appropriated by the last General Assembly, be, and is hereby, appropriated to pay the per diem and mileage of the delegates, officers and employees of the Convention and other necessary expenses.

SECTION 2. That the Governor and State Treasurer be, and they are hereby, authorized to borrow sufficient money to meet this additional appropriation, and the State Treasurer is hereby authorized to pay it out upon the warrants of the Comptroller-General, who is hereby required to issue his warrant or warrants for this additional appropriation, or so much thereof, as may be necessary to meet the purposes of this Ordinance.

SECTION 3. That the General Assembly is hereby required and directed, at its next session, to make an appropriation, sufficient to pay the amount of money the State Treasurer is herein authorized to borrow for the payment of the balance of the per diem and mileage of the delegates, officers and employees of the Convention, and other necessary expenses, after the exhaustion of the $30,000 already appropriated by the General Assembly.

Done in Convention, in Columbia, on the third day of December, A. D. 1895.

JNO. GARY EVANS,
President of Convention.

Attest:
S. W. VANCE,
Secretary of Convention.
